

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 13, 2012

ROTARY CLUBS SEEK NEW COMMUNITY PROJECTS IN METRO HALIFAX

Five metro Halifax Rotary clubs invite proposals from established and registered non-profit organizations seeking funding or support for programs or physical projects which have significant potential to enhance life in metro Halifax.

Rotary's main objective is service in the community, in the workplace and around the world.

No project is too big or too small, but we are looking for projects which will have a BIG IMPACT on metro Halifax and its people.

Criteria, conditions and an application form may be found online at www.DartmouthRotary.ca

The deadline for submission is noon, Monday, March 19, 2012.

FOR BROADCAST

Do you have a community project that would improve life in metro Halifax?

Five metro Halifax Rotary clubs invite proposals for community projects which have the potential to enhance life and have a BIG impact on HRM and its people.

Rotary's main objective is service in the community, in the workplace and around the world.

Criteria, conditions and an application form may be found online at www.DartmouthRotary.ca

-30-

Media contact:

Gord Gamble, Project Coordinator

T: 902-222-2196

CommunityProjects@DartmouthRotary.ca